

The Oxbow Quest Award

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Nominations may be based on a sustained effort or an extraordinary single achievement in any or all of the following areas of exotic mammal care:

- LEADERSHIP within the exotic mammal veterinary community
- EDUCATION of students, veterinarians or the public in regard to exotic mammals
- RESEARCH that expands our knowledge and understanding of exotic mammals
- INNOVATION of products or ideas that impact the exotic mammal field
- ADVOCACY for the field of exotic mammal veterinary medicine

Please note: nominations are judged based on merit, qualifications and contributions, not necessarily on the number of nominations received.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

Submit a CV and letter of recommendation describing the individual's contributions to the field of exotic mammal health. Mailed nominations must be postmarked by July 1, 2024.

Send nominations to:
Oxbow Animal Health, Attn: Quest Award
11902 S. 150th St.
Omaha, NE 68138

Or email to:
emhaward@oxbowanimalhealth.com

AWARD BENEFITS

- $1,000 cash award
- The Quest sculpture: A highly symbolic, contemporary artwork to commemorate the recipient's achievement
- A travel and registration stipend to help cover expenses associated with attending the AEMV conference (up to $1,000).

Recipients must be available and willing to attend a presentation ceremony at the annual conference and participate in other recognition activities.

The Quest is a contemporary sculpture designed by Oxbow Animal Health to represent the journey of the animal health professional. At the heart of The Quest is a structure resembling the serpent-encircled staff of Asclepius, Greek god of Healing and international symbol of medicine. The upward spiral also represents the quest of veterinary professionals as they seek to fulfill the tenets of the Veterinarian's Oath. Framing the spiral are three interlocking spheres, each one symbolizing an important facet of the professional quest: to promote animal health, to advance medical knowledge, and to benefit society.

Oxbow, in conjunction with AEMV, is proud to present the Oxbow Quest Award, an annual award to recognize excellence and innovation in the field of exotic mammal health.

